It took the six hundred cranks who saw the game between Hartford and the Chubs yesterday just five minutes to realize that the individuals who bunched together under that celestial title had awakened from the lethargic nap into which they had been plunged for several days.

And when Umpire Brennan made his exit from the clubhouse exactly at 4:29 o'clock, and marched majestically across the field in stately and dignified manner, and when the crowd, which had gathered in the vicinity of the base, and the Chubs, who were to be the sponsor, he received a round of applause, which, however, he declined to notice, but stalked on to his place in the game and shouted "Play!"

Am's was put in to twirl for the visitors and the local jumped on him on the start, winning the game in the first inning and clinching it, too. The good-natured pitcher realized that he was being severely punished, and he never let his head get down, but he was as well as he could under the circumstances, while the Chubs fattened their batting averages, and, besides making a few runs, kept the visitors on the run stopping the ball for its mad career from the bat to the field.

Stockdale had excellent control and allowed but three safe hits off his delivery, neither of which were seriously punished, and he never let his head get down, but he was as well as
the Chubs fattened their batting averages,
the field.

The entire team got together and put some ginger into the game, thereby travelling the early run, and the root were occasion demanded. The Chubs, also, had their batting eyes with them, and every man on the team came in for a share of the hitting, Lutenberg leading the list with four and Captain Klopf following with three. Seybold and Dundon caught two each and the other players caught once each. This was a glorious record for one game, and the Hartford boys were considerably crestfallen when they saw their own team beating them at such a lively rate, being themselves unable to connect of-tenter than thrice.

Tate, Purvis and Roach were the trio that met Stockdale half way for one hit, but that was the only one that the man made the run. The latter safely at first on Purvis' out at second. He went down on Roach's hit and when Hargrove let the ball pass through he scored.
This was the only run made by the opposition and was simply an accident at that.
Two of the hits, those by Purvis and Roach were made in the second inning, and the third was made by Tate in the sixth.

Nine men went up for the Chubs in the first inning, and after two men had been retired Lutenberg began the bombardment and when Stockdale had been killed at first, and Vaneau was made another. In the fourth inning Stockdale crossed over and in the eighth Klop scored. This closed it.

Lancaster, the most formidable opponent of the Chubs for the championship will begin a series of three games here this afternoon. This team holds the Atlantic League championship and will make a big fight to keep it. Some of the players are well known here, including Captain, Chasen, who has pitched for Richmond and who was with Norfolk nearly all last season; Fred Schaub, "Piggy" Ward, Buttermore and others.
Ralph Seybold led the field Chubs, was with Lancaster last season. This club will be given a hearty welcome.

WOODFORD DECLINES THE HONOR

The President Offered Him a Major.

Generalship of Volunteers.

WASHINGTON, May 10.—President Mc-Kinley on Sunday evening offered General Woodford the appointment to the vacant Major-Generalship which he had held until the General's return from Madrid. General Woodford took the night for reflection, and this morning wrote the President declining the honor. General Woodford thanked the President for the offer, which he highly appreciated, but he felt constrained to decline it.

THE APPOMATTOX MURDER.

The Trial of Emmett Marshall Will be a Sensational Case.

LYNCHBURG, VA., May 11.—Special.

Emmett Marshall, who will be tried on the first day of the June term of the Ap-the Maryland Presbytery, and, regardless of denomination, one of the richest and most influential of the city. Its last pastor was the Rev. Jere Whittebrook, who recently accepted a call to the Grace-Street church, Richmond.

On Sunday last Dr. Hogue's congregation extended Dr. Guthrie a permanent call as their associate pastor, at a salary of $2,500 and the promise that in case of Dr. Hogue's retirement he was to be his successor. The first church pays in the neighborhood of $5,000 and as the opportunities here are considered great, his acceptance is almost a probability.
Mr. Guthrie is a Canadian, and was recently forced to come South because of the disastrous effect of the rigorous climate on his wife's health. The fact is commented on that though the climate is a northern one, it always goes South for its pastor.

VIRGINIA'S WHIPPING LAW.

A Colored Boy Punished With Stripes

in Norfolk.

NORFOLK, VA., May 11.—Special.
Henry Bishop, colored boy, about ten years old, charged with stealing a pistol, overcoat and other things, was whipped at the jail to-day under the act approved March 3, 1888, which provides that a minor under sixteen guilty of a crime demerit may be whipped in lieu of fine or imprisonment, the minor's parents or guardian being given the option and being permitted to be present when the whipping is done.

The conviction was held in the Police Court, Justice Tomlin presiding.

The new law reads as follows:

Chapter 83.—An act to empower any judge or Justice of the Commonwealth before whom a minor under sixteen years of age is convicted of a misdemeanor to substitute stripes in lieu of fine and imprisonment, or of either, with the consent of the parent or guardian of such minor. Approved March 3, 1888.

1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia that when any minor under sixteen years of age is convicted of a misdemeanor the judge or Justice before whom such conviction is had may, if the parent or guardian shall consent in writing, may think proper to have the court shall discharge such minor from custody.

2. The stripes imposed under this act shall be administered by the sheriff or any constable of the county or sergeant of the corporation, wherein the conviction is had upon the order of the judge or Justice imposing the sentence, and at such time and place as the said judge or Justice may direct. The parent or guardian shall have the right to be present when stripes are administered.

Bishop was taken over to the jail, where he received his punishment.

MR. JEFFRESS ELECTED.
